

Centre for Criminology and Victimology (CVV)

The Centre for Criminology and Victimology, National Law University Delhi, inaugurated its office space for researchers, on 2nd May, 2019. The centre has been functional since the year 2016, with its various projects researching into complex issues related to criminal procedures and victim justice.

The Centre relooks at criminal justice system and justice, from the perspective of crime victims; providing solutions towards victim protection, rehabilitation, and participation. The centre through its various engagements organises training programmes for governmental, corporate, and International personnel and organisations.
